

Harry E. Nason, Jr. and Frances J. Nason Scholarship Trust

Harry and Francis Nason established this Scholarship Trust in 2006. They both had a great appreciation for education and learning. Having been former owners of Nason Mechanical Systems they created the scholarship to show their gratitude to the loyal and dedicated employees of Nason Mechanical Systems.

Applications will be accepted from applicants who meet the following criteria:

- Scholarship funds are available for students of all ages attending post-secondary education.
- The student must be one of the following: a child of a Nason Mechanical Systems employee¹, a Nason Mechanical Systems employee¹, their spouse (or domestic partner²), or a grandchild of a Nason Mechanical Systems employee¹.

Scholarship applications are reviewed by the current Trustees of the Harry E. Nason, Jr. and Frances J. Nason Scholarship Trust. The Trustees meet in the second week of July to make awards for the following academic school year and again in November for academic years beginning in the spring. Applications should be submitted before these meetings to be considered in time for awards to be applied in a timely manner.

The Selection is based on financial need, scholastic ability, seriousness of purpose, service to others and character. The number of awards and the amounts given may vary from year to year and you may apply each year that you are enrolled in post-secondary education.

¹ Must be an active Nason Mechanical Systems employee past 60 day probationary period.

² Affidavit of domestic partnership must be provided.
